Travel Information

Directions: Because we have participants coming from locations throughout the United States and from abroad, we ask that you provide us with your arrival and departure information. If you are arriving or departing on a date that is different than your check-in or check-out date at Columbia (ex. You are flying into NYC on Thursday, June 22nd to stay with friends; you will not arrive at Columbia until Saturday, June 24th), please indicate that in the notes section. If you are arriving by car, bus, or train, please still complete the form and return it to us.

For those of you who will be flying, we ask that you not book return flights that leave before 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 29th. That will ensure that you have enough time to get to the airport. If you have trouble finding affordable flight options that depart after 4:00 p.m., please call the JFR office at 212-727-9955 to discuss options before you make your reservation.

We ask that you submit your completed Travel Form by Friday, May 26, 2017. Please send to: sstahl@jfr.org (email), 212-727-9956 (fax), or The Jewish Foundation for the Righteous, Stanlee Stahl, 305 Seventh Avenue, 19th Floor, New York, NY 10001 (mail).
