

RABBI PLANS SERMON

"A World Aroused" Will Be Topic
At Temple Emanu-El

Rabbi Myron Silverman will preach a sermon entitled, "A World Aroused" at Sabbath Eve service of Temple Emanu-El beginning at 8 p.m. Friday.

"The ghastliness of recent events in Germany beggar description. Yet certain aspects of the situation engender comfort and encouragement in this tragic hour. What are they? What is there for us as Jews to do"—an excerpt from this sermon reads.

A children's service will be conducted at Temple Emanu-El at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. The ritual will be read by Caroline Louise Lewy, Phyllis Wortsman, Jack Odess and Bluma Mae Alper. Henry Birnbrey will give the blessings over the Torah. Rabbi Silverman will preach a sermonette.
