With sharp Republican points in Tuesday's Congressional elections, political observers are forecasting a close-up-and-drag-out fight in the new Congress over the Wagner labor act.

A nation-wide survey showing a growing belief in the election and file voters throughout the country that Ed Wagner act should be retained.

APPOINTMENT OF NEW JUSTICE MAY PRECIPITATE FIGHT

Roosevelt's Choice Looms As Battleground For First Test In New Congress

PROGRESSIVES LOOK TO F. D. R. AS LEADER

Realigning Proposal Comes From LaGuardia-Murphy-Bulkeley Conference

By The Associated Press

President Roosevelt's forthcoming appointment of a new Supreme Court justice may provide the first test of administration strength in the new Congress.

Some politicians look to the appointment also as an inkling as to whether last Tuesday's election returns may influence Roosevelt's policy.

They predict that if he intends to push a policy of "moderately liberal" changes and thus lessens likelihood of a bitter Senate controversy over confirmation of the appointment.

On the other hand there has been some speculation that if Roosevelt nominates a conservative Democrat, the Senate will vote against such an appointment.
