Fair Luck For Tonight's Game

Which is the luckier . . . horseshoes or crossed fingers? There seems to be a sharp difference of opinion on the subject, with West End High's pretty football sponsors, at top, using traditional horseshoes to wish their team luck while Ensley's equally fair lasses rely on the crossed-fingers method. But it will all be decided tonight. In the top picture, Billy Meek, left, and Sid Huslander, stars of the Lions' backfield, are the lads receiving the blessings of the West End sponsors, left to right, Mary Boff Kimbrough, Dorothy Buttman and Jean Wilson. Below, Jack Boswell, left, and Dave Brown, Ensley's outstanding backs, are being given a similar "bon voyage" by, left to right, Evelyn Chapplear, Patsy Logan and Peggie Jordan.

ENSLEY MEETS WEST END HIGH

City Football Title May Be Decided In Grid Contest Tonight

The season's record for high school football attendance is expected to be shattered at Legion field tonight when Ensley's unseaten and untied Yellow Jackets meet West End's powerful Lions in a grid battle that may decide the city championship.

A crowd of 10,000 or more is expected to see the game, which starts at 7:30 p. m.

The outlook is a toss-up. Both schools have powerful, fast-running and flashy backs that put them among the "tops" in prep school football in Alabama if not the entire South.

If Ensley wins it means the Yellow Jackets will walk off the field tonight as undisputed champions of Birmingham's Big Five Conference.

If West End wins the Lions still must overcome Woodlawn before they can claim the championship, although Woodlawn itself is out of the picture so far as the Big Five title is concerned.

Virgin Birth Is Possible, Doctor Finds

By United Press
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—Medical scientists were astounded today by Dr. Stanley Reimann's evidence that the human ovum can be artificially stimulated to produce virgin birth.

He told the Philadelphia Pathological Society last night that he had pierced a human cell, taken from a woman, with a tiny needle, and that in its eight hours of life, it started maturing without having been fertilized by a sperm cell.

He made the discovery during experimental study. He is a cancer research specialist at Villanova University. Pathologists here said it was the first reliable evidence of virgin birth of humans that ever had been submitted.

Dr. Reimann placed the cell in a blood serum and punctured it with the needle. Twenty minutes later the elastic "shell" of the egg burst and it emitted a yellowish jelly. After another 20 minutes, the phenomenon recurred. The jelly was composed of waste, called "polar bodies," which the fertilized egg normally sheds when it starts maturing.

Europe's search for stable peace faced new difficulties as a result of a rising tide of anti-Semitism on this 20th anniversary of the end of the World War.

Great Britain, hopefully leading the efforts toward appeasement, found the outlook less encouraging as London newspapers indignantly denounced Nazi attacks on Jews and the government made representations to Berlin intended to safeguard the rights of British Jews in Germany.

FOREIGN JEWS WARNED

By United Press
BERLIN, Nov. 11.—Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda, warned foreign Jews today that "if they want to help their co-racials in Germany, not to agitate untruthfully or insult Germany as they have done in the past few days."

Goebbels denied that the wrecking of Jewish shops had been specifically organized.

"If I had organized this like a real Nazi demonstration," he said, "it would have been more successful and more radical."

Goebbels denied that there had been any plundering or injury to Jews.

bands avenged the assassination of a Reich diplomat in Paris by smashing Jewish stores, burning synagogues, imprisoning thousands and otherwise terrorizing Jewry in the widest outbreak since Adolf Hitler came into power.

Furthermore, the Nazi Government warned that it was going to find a "final" solution of what it termed the Jewish problem and experts were at work on new laws intended to re-establish the ghetto conditions of the Dark Ages.

Meanwhile, British Air Minister Sir Kingsley Wood announced that the government intended to spend $5,000,000,000 on aerial armaments during 1939-40, including purchase of many airplanes from the United States.

Oppression Reaches Climax

BERLIN, Nov. 11.—Nazi experts are drafting ghetto laws along medieval lines as the first official act of vengeance for the fatal shooting of a German Embassy secretary in Paris by a 17-year-old Jew, it was understood today.

Under the laws, which may be announced this week-end, Jewish businesses and residences would be restricted to prescribed districts. Stores and apartments owned by Jews in "Aryan" neighborhoods would be expropriated in exchange for stores and apartments in the ghettos.

The legislation would be part of a program designed, as Nazis put it, to provide a "final solution" of the Jewish problem.

It was understood that the question of expelling foreign Jews was under the most careful examination. The difficulty was the possibility of reprisals by foreign countries. Nazi (See Jews, Page 16) circles reported today that within the last few days, for instance, Poland had confiscated sufficient German property in Poland to pay the costs of caring for 10,000 Jews whom Germany deported to Poland.

There were unconfirmed reports that, because of the shooting of Ernst Von Rath, third secretary of the Paris embassy, by Hirschel Grynszpan, the government might finally put into effect a long-considered plan to expropriate property of German Jews, put it into a national pool, and permit the owners to draw only a small interest payment on the amount at which their property was assessed.

Rath is to be given a state funeral at Dusseldorf Tuesday. Fuehrer Adolf Hitler was expected to speak, and over Rath's body announce the long-range Nazi policy concerning Jews.

Refused Food

Countless Jews had been ruined throughout Germany and Austria in a campaign of destruction which was ended last night by official order. Many thousands of Jews had been arrested. Their synagogues had been burned. Most Jewish shop owners were left without means of subsistence. In Austria, by official order, Nazis had begun confiscation of goods in Jewish stores. Many grocery stores and restaurants in Vienna received orders to refuse to sell food to Jews.

It was the high point of five and a half years in which Jews had been systematically restricted in their livelihood, excluded from professions and trades, ostracized from a large part of society, imprisoned in concentration camps, in some cases, because their names appeared on police blotters for offenses like overtime parking.

But Jews, desperate, with no place to go and with no hope of help from abroad, feared that the climax was yet to come. Already Jewish residents of Munich had been warned to get out of town by tomorrow night.
