

BIRMINGHAM, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1938

Entered as second-class matter Postoffice, Birmingham, Ala.

Vol. 18—No. 255

"Easy to Read and Worth Reading"

Birmingham: Fair, cooler tonight, 40 to 45; fair and warmer tomorrow.

Alabama: Partly cloudy, cooler in south and central areas; fair tomorrow.

BRITISH NAZI ACCORD SPLIT BY RACE HATE

Germany's Persecution Of Jews Leads To Breaking Off Of Negotiations

BOTH NATIONS REFUSED

Hitler's Personal Attacks On English Leaders Stays London's Advances

Personal Attacks against such men as Winston Churchill, a power in the Conservative Party...

BRITAIN PROTESTS

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The British charge d'affaires in Berlin has been instructed to protest strongly to the German government...

The attacks in the German press which Britain protested against included an article by Dr. Angier...

No Open Intervention

Despite unofficial protests on all sides, it was understood that the government would not intervene openly in the German anti-Jewish campaign...

Fairfield's Students In 'Picket Line'

A threatened strike of students at Fairfield Senior High school, led by a group of disgruntled handmen...

NATIONALISTS LAUNCH NEW ERRO OFFENSIVE

HENDAYE, French—Spanish Frontiers. Nov. 14.—Spanish Nationalists have launched a new offensive today designed to drive the Loyalists out of a narrow pocket in the west bank of the Ebro River...

Offered Eye After Four Refusals

Authorities at Laramie, Wyo., debated today whether William Cardiff, a prisoner in the County Jail, really wanted to give an eye to a blind man or merely obtain sympathy and freedom...

Shop Early, But Drive Carefully

The slogan, "Do Your Winter Driving Carefully" tied today with "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early" for a place in the public mind...

LATE NEWS FLASHES

Airline Given 3-Months Extension

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—The Postoffice Department today granted Eastern Airlines a three-month extension...

Textile Firm's Eviction Deadline Reached

HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Deadline for the eviction of 256 families from tenement houses owned by the Merrimac Manufacturing Co. textile mill, was reached this afternoon...

32,000 Barrels Of Whisky Destroyed In Fire

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Damage estimated in excess of $2,000,000 was caused today when a fire of undetermined origin destroyed 32,000 barrels of whisky in warehouses of the Glenmore Distillers Co. in Louisville, Ky.

School Bus, WPA Truck Collide; One Killed

MERIDIAN, Miss., Nov. 14.—Mrs. Irene Burkes, 23, Meridian, was killed instantly and seven school children were shaken badly today when a school bus collided with a Works Progress Administration truck at 5:30 p. m. on the highway...

President Opens National Defense Study

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Roosevelt called a group of Administration luminaries to the White House today for a discussion of national defense problems. The conference was called coincident with a report of Gen. Malin Craig, Army chief-of-staff, recommending immediate increases in Army pay and broad expenditures for defensive weapons.

Reds Charged With Sabotage Plot Against U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Zygmund Dobzynski, Detroit, United Automobile Workers organizer, told the House committee investigating Communist activities today that the Communist Party once plotted to sabotage the arms industry.

Nunamaker, Ex-Big League Player, Dies

HASTENOR, Neb., Nov. 14.—Leslie G. Nunamaker, 49, former major league baseball player, died today. He had been in billing hospital on charges of slaying Frank Byron, leader in the home when he strangled Mrs. Mary Gordon, 54, and her daughter, Virginia, 20-year-old artist model. The sixth juror—26-year-old William S. Griswold, 47—was chosen shortly after the trial was resumed.

Three Bodies Found In Submerged Car

ROCKEVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 14.—The bodies of three Rockeville youths were discovered today in an automobile submerged in a pond on charges of slaying Frank Byron, leader in the home when he strangled Mrs. Mary Gordon, 54, and her daughter, Virginia, 20-year-old artist model. The sixth juror—26-year-old William S. Griswold, 47—was chosen shortly after the trial was resumed.

Jim Williams' "Out On My Way" characters are among the most fun of all comic features. These characters, appearing in the most widely...

CHEST GAINS 70 PER CENT OF ITS QUOTA

$327,749.77 Is Subscribed To Date In Drive For City's Charities

SECOND WEEK STARTED

Workers Plan New Efforts; 'Quick Cleanup' Now Their Intention

The 16th annual appeal of the Community Chest today went into its second week with only 29.8 per cent of its quota yet to be raised. Latest report, total amount taken in to date is $327,749.77, or 70.2 per cent of the goal $466,727.44.

'TO CLEAR NAME,' INVALID SONS STAND BY FATHER ACCUSED OF MURDER

Dr. Barnes' Refusal To Clear His Name

Although he stands accused of having plotted the murder of his mother, the three sons of Dr. Robert H. Barnes, invalid Winfield doctor, came to his side to comfort him and venerate their father in his innocence as he awaited trial at Hamilton this morning.

IT MAY BE TOO LATE FOR HIM, DOCTOR SAYS

Case Is Opened With State Charging Wife Murder Against Barnes

Dr. Barnes' attending physician has warned his condition was such he should never leave his bed and it might prove irreparably injurious to his health for him to face trial.

THREE SONS STAND BY

Hamilton Is Crowded For Trial; Byars' Story To Be Attacked

Dr. Barnes' determination to clear his name while his mother, Mrs. J. H. Barnes, faces trial in her late 70s, still lives.

DPW WILL ASK FOR INCREASE

Legislators Also To Hear Outline Of City-County Manager Plan

A plea for additional funds to enable the Jefferson County Department of Public Welfare to raise the relief fund, has been made before the Jefferson legislative delegation tonight by Raymond Thompson, DPW chief of staff.

BULLDOG GROWLS, PANTHER PROWL

Saturday Is The Day—When Howard And Southern Clash In Birmingham's Annual 'Battle Of The Marine'

On the city's western border the snarl of the panther echoed back to the city's eastern fringe today where the bark of the bulldog resounded.

LEWIS CALLS HITLER 'WOLF'

CIO Delegates Cheer; Peace With A. F. Of L. Gets No Closer

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—John L. Lewis, chairman of the Committee for Industrial Organization, brought 40 delegates to its first constitutional convention to meet here in a noisy demonstration today when he struck back at his critics and attacked Adolf Hitler as a "blood-thirsty wolf."

COURT AGAIN SAYS 'NO' TO MOONEY

Reiterates Refusal For Review Of His Case

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The Supreme Court today reiterated its earlier refusal to review Thomas J. Mooney's 21-year-old fight for release from the life imprisonment sentence he is serving in San Quentin, Cal., pending trial.

THUGS TAKE HIS PANTS AND POLICE TAKE HIS LIBERTY

Early Pity's Senses on Etiquette

Early Pity's senses on etiquette were found to be somewhat lacking from upon public appearances of trousers yesterday.

THUGS TAKE HIS PANTS AND POLICE TAKE HIS LIBERTY

Early Pity's senses on etiquette were found to be somewhat lacking from upon public appearances of trousers yesterday.

JAM IS ON TODAY TO GET AUTO LICENSES

Hundreds of motorists jammed today in the downtown office where they obtained in the first four counties of the County today in what is called 1938 tags before the deadline tonight.

IT MAY BE TOO LATE FOR HIM, DOCTOR SAYS

Case Is Opened With State Charging Wife Murder Against Barnes

Dr. Barnes' attending physician has warned his condition was such he should never leave his bed and it might prove irreparably injurious to his health for him to face trial.

THREE SONS STAND BY

Hamilton Is Crowded For Trial; Byars' Story To Be Attacked

Dr. Barnes' determination to clear his name while his mother, Mrs. J. H. Barnes, faces trial in her late 70s, still lives.

BLUEPRINT FOR BATTLE

In thousands of industrial plants, the United States is methodically preparing for the next war by setting up an elaborate defense system so that the nation will not again be caught flatfooted as it was in 1917.

BROWNED IN AUTO

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—Men in East 23, and Edward L. Schaefer, 19, were drowned yesterday when their automobile plunged into a canal 15 miles southeast of here.

RED CHARGES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Zygmund Dobzynski, Detroit, United Automobile Workers organizer, told the House committee investigating Communist activities today that the Communist Party once plotted to sabotage the arms industry.

THUGS TAKE HIS PANTS AND POLICE TAKE HIS LIBERTY

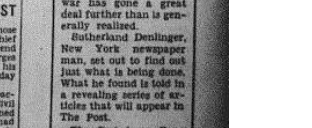

Early Pity's senses on etiquette were found to be somewhat lacking from upon public appearances of trousers yesterday.

JAM IS ON TODAY TO GET AUTO LICENSES

Hundreds of motorists jammed today in the downtown office where they obtained in the first four counties of the County today in what is called 1938 tags before the deadline tonight.

BLUEPRINT FOR BATTLE

In thousands of industrial plants, the United States is methodically preparing for the next war by setting up an elaborate defense system so that the nation will not again be caught flatfooted as it was in 1917.

term contract with NEA Service, Inc. The story of Mr. Williams' remarkable life, from which he draws the material for his cartoon, is on Page Three.

(Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc. Printed in U. S. A.)