

TEACHING WITH STORIES

Monday, October 21, 2019 / FLORENCE, AL

Monday, October 28, 2019 / THOMASVILLE, AL

Monday, January 6, 2020 / GADSDEN, AL

Monday, January 13, 2020 / PHENIX CITY, AL

Three young Germans— all born within four years of each other— each had a different experience during the Holocaust. Two survived and made their home in Alabama.

Robert May, Camberg, Germany, 1926

Ruth Siegler, Sinzenich, Germany, 1927

Anne Frank, Frankfurt, Germany, 1929

- Learn to teach the history of the Holocaust using survivor stories.
- Appreciate historical context and its impact on individual lives.
- Explore the difficulties of emigration and America's position during the Holocaust.

-
- Facilitated by BHEC educators.
 - Registration required.
 - Open to Alabama teachers in grades 6-12.
 - FREE ($25 registration fee will be refunded upon attendance).
 - Substitute reimbursement paid up to $80/day.
 - Six (6) hours of CEU credit upon completion.
 - Light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

ALABAMA
HUMANITIES
FOUNDATION

HILL CREST
FOUNDATION

To register, or for more information, visit www.bhecinfo.org