

The Holocaust In Film

FREE

Emmet O'Neal Library, 50 Oak Street, Mountain Brook, 205-879-0459

Discussion led by Dr. André Millard, UAB

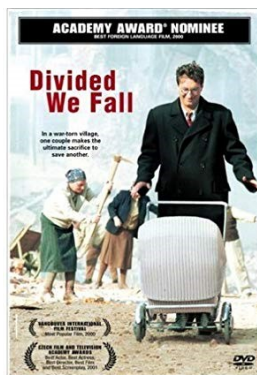

2012 | US
103 min. | Subtitles

Sunday, January 13,
2:00 pm (doors open 1:30)

There Was Once

A Catholic high school teacher in Kalocsa, Hungary is doing research in local history when she discovers the lost Jewish community that once thrived there. Engaging her students in her research, she teaches tolerance and fights prejudice in a country where the extreme right tries to renew racial tensions.

2001 | Czech Republic
122 min. | Subtitles

Thursday, January 17,
6:30 pm (doors open 6:00)

Divided We Fall

Nominee Best Foreign Language Film

This dramatic comedy, set in a small Czech town during the last years of World War II, explores what abnormal times do to normal people. Josef and Marie are a childless couple who yearn for a baby. Unfortunately, he is sterile. What unfolds blurs the moral distinction between victim, collaborator, and perpetrator.

2008 | Czech Republic
85 min. | Subtitles

Thursday, January 24,
6:30 pm (doors open 6:00)

Forgotten Transports

Based on more than 400 hours of interviews, this documentary follows the experience of several dozen young Jewish Czech women who are deported to concentration camps in Estonia & Germany. Thanks to youthful naivety, friendship, and mutual help, they manage to stay together and survive.

2017 | Hungary
91 min. | Subtitles

Sunday, January 27,
2:00 pm (doors open 1:30)

1945

Chairman's Award, Jerusalem Film Festival

"They're back"... the visiting men in black hats aren't villains out for revenge, but Orthodox Jews who have come to a Hungarian village at the end of the war. Their purpose is unclear. The veneer of civility, built over the village's foundation of treachery, begins to unravel.

Emmet O'Neal Library

BIRMINGHAM
HOLOCAUST
EDUCATION
CENTER