HUNDREDS FEARED BURIED IN SLIDES OF MOUNTAIN SIDE

A mountain appeared to have parted the earth and spread the ruins of the city of Hindustan. The mountain, which is known as Mount Hindustan, is believed to have parted the earth and caused a landslide that buried hundreds of people.

The mountain is located in the Indian state of Himachal Pradesh. The landslide occurred on the night of November 22, 1938. The mountain is known for its rich deposits of minerals, including gold and silver. The city of Hindustan is a small town located at the base of the mountain.

THE BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD

U.S. PLANS NEW NOTE TO JAPAN

Tokyo’s Reply to Hull’s Complaint Deemed Unsatisfactory

LEADERS WORRIED BY IMPLICATIONS

Case of Manchurian Is Cited as What May Happen in China

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—A statement by Japan’s ambassador to the United States, His Excellency Mr. K. Hirota, was received by Japan’s cabinet. The statement, which was issued on behalf of the government, said that Japan was concerned about the situation in China.

The statement said that Japan was concerned about the situation in China, and that it was working to resolve the problem. The statement also said that Japan was willing to cooperate with other countries to find a solution.

FRANCE AND BRITAIN TO TALK ARMS

Hitler’s Colony Claims Put in Background As Parley Nears

FRANCE AND BRITAIN TO TALK ARMS

FRANCE AND BRITAIN TO TALK ARMS

EXECUTIVE RAPS PROFIT SHARING BY LEGISLATION

Benefits Of Plans Are Cited by Others Before Committee

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—The President, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, today spoke before a joint session of Congress on the subject of profit-sharing by legislation. The President said that profit-sharing was an important aspect of the New Deal program.

The President said that profit-sharing was an important aspect of the New Deal program. He said that it was a way to put the American worker first and make sure that he benefited from the profits of the companies he worked for.

MRS. ROOSEVELT IN DEBATE WITH LUTHER PATRICK

First Lady Maintains Universal Education Need of Democracy

Mrs. Roosevelt was in debate with Mr. Luther Patrick, a member of the Senate, on the subject of education. Mrs. Roosevelt said that universal education was needed in order to create a better society.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—Mrs. Roosevelt said that universal education was needed in order to create a better society. She said that education was the key to success in life, and that every American should have the opportunity to receive a good education.

THE BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD

SARIES STATES JOBS WOULD END ALIEN ACTIVITIES

Foreign Menace Cited By Dies Associate In Talk Here

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—Mr. Dies, a member of Congress, today spoke before a joint session of Congress on the subject of foreign menace. Mr. Dies said that foreign menace was a real threat to the United States, and that something had to be done to stop it.

Mr. Dies said that foreign menace was a real threat to the United States, and that something had to be done to stop it. He said that the United States should work with other countries to find a solution.