24 STATES SHOW LEAD FOR G. O. P.

1st Place of Vote Is Republican, Survey of Section Shows

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 17 - (AP) - A national election survey made Wednesday night by news agencies of the vote in the 24 states for which returns were available, showed the Democratic lead was reduced to 150,000, or 5 percent of the total vote.

The survey showed the Republicans had won 47 of the 100 seats in the House of Representatives, with the Democrats holding 43.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 - (AP) - The United States and Great Britain are near to a new trade agreement, as the British government has indicated it would not object to such an agreement.

The State Department said Thursday that the two countries were near to an agreement on trade matters.

The agreement would be expected to be reached at the meeting of the British and American Trade Ministers in London next week.
