JEWISH PALESTINE PLAN

F.D.R. URGED TO ASK FOR JEWISH REFUGEE HAVEN

Palestine Settlement Plan Is Approved

By U.S. Group

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 - A group of American Jewish leaders led by President Roosevelt to ask that Great Britain throw wide open Palestine for the purpose of accommodating up to 300,000 Jews, of whom 200,000 are to be allowed to enter the country under the Jewish Immigration Act of 1920. The request was made in a resolution adopted by the United Jewish Appeal, following the recent visit of the American Jewish leaders to Britain, where they were welcomed by the Prime Minister and other officials.

The government of Great Britain has already approved the plan, and is now awaiting a response from the United States government. The American Jewish leaders have expressed the hope that the plan will be accepted by the United States government, as it is the only practical way of solving the Jewish refugee problem.

The plan is based on the principle that the Jewish people have a right to a homeland, and that the United States, as a leader in the Hebrew community, has the duty to support this right.

The American Jewish leaders have also expressed the hope that the plan will be accepted by the United States government, as it is the only practical way of solving the Jewish refugee problem.

The government of Great Britain has already approved the plan, and is now awaiting a response from the United States government. The American Jewish leaders have expressed the hope that the plan will be accepted by the United States government, as it is the only practical way of solving the Jewish refugee problem.

The plan is based on the principle that the Jewish people have a right to a homeland, and that the United States, as a leader in the Hebrew community, has the duty to support this right.

The American Jewish leaders have also expressed the hope that the plan will be accepted by the United States government, as it is the only practical way of solving the Jewish refugee problem.

The government of Great Britain has already approved the plan, and is now awaiting a response from the United States government. The American Jewish leaders have expressed the hope that the plan will be accepted by the United States government, as it is the only practical way of solving the Jewish refugee problem.

The plan is based on the principle that the Jewish people have a right to a homeland, and that the United States, as a leader in the Hebrew community, has the duty to support this right.

The American Jewish leaders have also expressed the hope that the plan will be accepted by the United States government, as it is the only practical way of solving the Jewish refugee problem.