WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—(AP)—A new note in which the United States is believed to have insisted that Germany is responsible for Austria's debts went forward to Berlin Friday.

It was a quick reply to a communication in which the Reich is understood to have taken the position that she had no legal obligation to assume the debts.

Friday's communication was sent from Washington without even awaiting the arrival of Ambassador Hugh Wilson, who is coming back from Berlin with a comprehensive report on the situation in Germany.

The action called renewed attention to one of the points of differences between the two governments, whose relations have suffered such a critical strain that both have called their ambassadors home.

The new American note was approved by Secretary of State Hull in one of his last official acts before departing for New York on route to the Pan-American conference at Lima, Peru. It answers a German note of Nov. 17 relative to American insistence that Germany assume Austrian indebtedness outstanding in this country when Austria disappeared into the German state last March.

German government concerning Austrian bonds, the main part of which involves $24,053,708.92 due the United States for flour and other foods sold Austria just after the World War. The contents were not divulged, but it was believed the note rejected a German communication, likewise unpublished, last Monday. In Washington, it was reported the United States insisted Germany must assume the Austrian debt.

3. The interpretation that a new order by Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering against further anti-Jewish street actions meant that foreign boycotts were cutting seriously into German trade.

Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, in a meeting of the Nazi Recreation Organization, Strength Through Joy, and the Federal Culture Chamber, complained that:

"Other countries are defending the Jews in Germany, but unfortunately they do not take them off our hands."

Present at the meeting addressed by Goebbels was Fascista Puccetti, director general of the similar Ita-lilan recreational association, Dopolivoce.
