

SILVERMAN TO SPEAK

Rabbi Morris Newfield's Pulpit To Be Supplied At Services

Due to the illness of Rabbi Morris Newfield, Sabbath eve services at Temple Emanu-El will be conducted by Rabbi Myron Silverman Friday, at 8 p.m. His lecture will be on the subject: "Peace, the World's Illusion."

This youthful rabbi, who will serve during the regrettable illness of Dr. Newfield, will deliver the sermon Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m.

In his lecture Friday Dr. Silverman will declare that: "The peoples of the world take stock 20 years after the world conflict and find the picture none too pleasant. Is this an altogether discouraging outlook or is peace more than just a hopeful dream."
