Friday, November 18, 2016

8:45 AM – 3:30 PM (Check-in begins at 8:15 AM)

University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB)
UAB Alumni House
1301 10th Avenue South

Learn to engage and inspire students by teaching about the 30,000 Jews who fought back against the Nazis and their collaborators as Jewish partisans.

Teaching with the Motion Picture Defiance:

Inspire students with the true story of the Bielski brothers, who saved 1,200 lives and organized the largest Jewish resistance during World War II.

Ethics of War

Help your students critically examine the concepts of resistance, revenge, and ethics.

Women in the Partisans

Transform students with the history of Jewish women who overcame racism and sexism to join the fight against the Nazis.

Workshop presenter Bruce Bramlett specializes in Holocaust education and professional development training.

Teachers will receive:

- Special Defiance DVD with key scenes suitable for classroom use.
- Teacher guides and lesson plans.
- Morning snack and lunch.
- Funding of up to $80 per day to reimburse for school substitute teacher (forms will be provided at the workshop).
- Six (6) hours of credit upon completion of the workshop (must be present for entire workshop).

Workshops are:

- Open to teachers in grades 6 – 12.
- FREE to all teachers. The $25 registration fee will be refunded upon attendance.
