British Nazi Accord Split By Race Hate

Germany's Pardon of Hess Leads To Breaking Off Of Negotiations

HITLER'S PERSONAL ATTACKS ON ENGLISH LEADERS HAYES LONDON'S REACTIONS

Australia's Opposition Leader Rallies Against Germany

Brimming With Hate, Britain's Opposition Leader, Sir Edward Heath, announced today that he would take the lead in opposing any move that might lead to the acceptance of Germany's offer to pardon its prisoner, Joachim Guest. Heath said that the offer was a sign of the growing weakness of the Nazi regime and that it was time for Britain to take a stand against it.

Meanwhile, in Berlin, Joachim Guest was greeted with cheers and applause as he arrived at the airport. The offer to pardon him had been made by Chancellor Adolph Hitler.

Britain's Foreign Secretary, Sir Anthony Eden, said that the offer was a sign of the growing weakness of the Nazi regime and that Britain would not accept it.

Late News Flashes

Airline Offered 3-Months Extension

Wash. D.C. (AP) - The nation's airlines have offered to extend their operations for three months, starting on April 1, in an effort to prevent a major strike.

Despite the offer, the pilots are expected to go on strike as scheduled.

DPW Will Ask For Increase

Legislators Also To Hear Outline of City-County Manager Plan

Denver, Colo. (AP) - The city council here is expected to call for an increase in the city manager's pay and to hear an outline of the city manager's plan.

Although the increase was not expected to be large, the move is viewed as a step in the direction of improving the city manager's position.

Bulldog Grows, Panther Prowls

Budapest, Hungary (AP) - The Hungarian government has announced that it will increase the size of its military by 10 percent.

This move is seen as a response to the growing threat posed by the Soviet Union.

Lewis Calls Hitler 'Wolf'

A German professor has called Hitler 'a wolf in sheep's clothing.'

Although the statement was made in private, it has been widely reported.

Rising News Flashes

Trade Unions, WPA Tell Worker to 'Calm Down'

Washington, D.C. (AP) - The national trade unions and the WPA have called on workers to 'calm down' and resist demands for higher pay.

The unions have said that they will not negotiate with workers who are seeking more than the union's recommended wage.

Armed Forces, No More

President Roosevelt has announced that the armed forces will no longer be used to help control labor disputes.

This decision is seen as a major victory for the labor movement.

Selection of Jury to Try Sculptor Resigned

New York, N.Y. (AP) - The selection of a jury to try a sculptor accused of murder has been postponed.

The sculptor, who is represented by a prominent lawyer, has refused to be tried by a jury selected from the city of New York.