The Birmingham Holocaust Education Center (BHEC) is presenting four professional development events that will provide teachers with resources and pedagogical approaches to teaching the complexities of the Holocaust. These events are presented in cooperation with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Alabama Holocaust Commission, University of West Alabama, Troy University, University of Alabama in Huntsville, Jewish Federation of Huntsville and North Alabama, and Samford University.

THESE WORKSHOPS ARE:

- Open to teachers in grades six through 12
- FREE to all teachers (the $25 registration fee will be refunded upon attendance)
- Facilitated by regional educators of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

PARTICIPATING TEACHERS WILL RECEIVE:

- Books and resources from the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum
- Lunch and snacks
- Funding of up to $80 per day to reimburse schools for substitute teachers (Forms will be provided at the workshop.)
- Six (6) hours of credit upon completion of the workshop (must be present for the entire workshop)

To register, or for more information, visit www.bhamholocausteducation.org.

This workshop has been made possible with support from the David and Fela Shapell Family Foundation.
